TCV Purposes & Objectives

TCV Vision

Communities, organisations and groups of people across Tairāwhiti have a strong voice to influence positive change.

TCV Mission

- TCV Inc. Is a regional voice for local communities and organisations.
- We are a network that cooperates to identify and collectively address the needs of our local communities.
- We help increase both community involvement and people's influence on the services they received.
- We provide a forum where communities, organisations and groups can effectively contribute to the social structure and development of the Tairāwhiti region.

TCV Purposes

As defined in the organisation's constitution are charitable and specifically:

- To uphold the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi.
- To provide a united forum and ongoing organisation through which non-government, not-for-profit organisations., iwi rōpū, individuals, voluntary groups, local bodies and government organisations in the Tairāwhiti region involved in social issues can work together locally, regionally and nationally to improve social conditions.
- To hold regular meetings to which all members can address topical issues and concerns.
- To facilitate and support services and other resources for community education and to raise awareness in social service areas.
- To maintain linkages and representation of relevant bodies with a particular emphasis on the needs of citizens in rural regions such as the Tairāwhiti region.
- To plan, establish and maintain and operate any other such activities as TCV Inc. Deems desirable, for the benefit of the community and the public in general.
- To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment and furtherance of the above objectives and any other charitable purposes under New Zealand Law, which the Executive Committee deems desirable.
