Tairāwhiti Community Voice Nan Evans Award

Tairāwhiti Community Voice presents the Nan Evans Award for
'Strength of Spirit and Dedicated Work for Your Community.'

We are now accepting nominations for this special award that is intended to acknowledge voluntary dedication, teamwork, inspirational leadership or those with persistent determination to see our community sector thrive.

Applications close on 31 August 2026

The recipient of the award is selected by the Tairāwhiti Community Voice Exec who will present it at the TCV AGM 14 September 2026

Terms and Conditions:

Please note the following:

- Only financial members of our network can make nominations
- The person nominated must do volunteer work which is done of one's own free will, unpaid, for the benefit of others. They can be in paid work as well, but must be considered to 'go the extra mile' and contribute to the community above and beyond what is expected of their role.
- The award is given in the spirit of GISCOSS/TCV and has to stay within the organisation.
- The award must be returned in time for the next years ceremony.
- If a group is nominated, one certificate is presented to the group.
- The TCV Exec Members will consider each nomination and vote for the Nan Evans Award winner.
- Please be aware that all information contained in your nomination may be used for publicity.
- The TCV Exec Members decision will be final.

All nominations will be acknowledged. If you don't receive an acknowledgement within seven days, please contact us. 020 4190 0415 or contact@tcvhub.co.nz

Please submit your nominations using the form on the following page.
